STAGE COACH
1958

Foreword

On June the second in 1958,
We the Senior Class will graduate,
And leave behind us, Saint Mary's.

After a year or two,
When you have nothing to do
Then pick up this book,
And take a quick look
At the life that you lived at Saint Mary's:
First come the faculty,
Friends,
And follies.

Not to be forgotten are of course:
Chapel,
Assemblies,
Lectures,
Et cetera . . .
Roommates,
Traditions,
And the everlasting—ringing of bells,
All of which we remember quite well.

So as you flip through these pages,
And recall some of the stages . . .
Think of your times at Saint Mary's.
And when upon this life you wish to concentrate,
Just open up the Stage Coach of 1958.

THE EDITOR

Dedication

It is indeed a privilege for the Senior Class to have the opportunity of dedicating this 1958 Stage Coach to you, our beloved Dean, MISS EDITH ANNE RICHARDSON. We hope that this may serve as a small token of our appreciation for all that you have done for us.

Smedes

Here is Smedes . . .
We entered Saint Mary's through her doors;
We lived in her rooms;
In her classrooms we learned;
And studied some too.
What part of this building will we remember most?
The parlors—with dates and Sunday line-ups?
Perhaps the sunporch, where we tanned somewhat . . .
It could be the mail boxes,
Or flights of stairs. . . .
Maybe the Little Store,
Coke machine,
Book store,
Or pay telephones.
What about the Dean's Office,
Sign-out tables,
And bulletin boards,
Day Students' Room,
Or package lists—with every name but ours?
Truly, Smedes holds much to be remembered;
And since we entered through her doors . . .
So, through these same doors must we leave—
Farewell to Smedes, from the Class of '58.

Miss "R" is ever by our side, just when we need her. She is always ready with a word of advice . . . patient to the end . . . truly everyone's friend.

DR. MOULTRIE GUERRY
Chaplain

Dr. Guerry came to Saint Mary's this year from Old Saint Paul's Church in Norfolk, where he was rector for the past twenty years. He brought with him, his "precious" wife and an untold amount of sincerity and understanding for everyone.

Senior Class Prayer

Our Heavenly Father, who art the source of life and light, grant we pray that we may be better persons for having benefited by all that St. Mary's has so freely and graciously offered us and by the best we have given in return, and that we may share with others the joy of our experiences.

As we go forth into more mature life, grant that the footprints which we leave behind may be a worthy guide to those who follow; and that our gratitude for our teachers may inspire a deep appreciation in those who will continue to receive of their abundance. We pray that knowledge we have gained may enrich our lives, and that the friendships we have made may remain in our memories, and that the prayers and praises of our worship as one family may bless us wherever we may be. All this we ask for Christ's sake. AMEN.

MILLIE FARY

Senior Class Poem

We came and warmed to the smiles we found
  Upon her many faces.
In her halls friendship and quiet love
  Came to us and dwelled.
In her chapel we learned to know God
  And know ourselves.
Each hand has gathered and shared of the Good things she gave—
  Gifts from heart and mind.

She has taught us and the world of today has
  Trusted us to learn.
We have lit our tiny candles from the warm glow
  Of her heart,
From the bright flame of her mind.
  We hold them high and leave
  To light new worlds.

DOROTHY HULICK

Last Will and Testament

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
COUNTY OF WAKE
City of Raleigh

We, the Senior Class of 1958 of St. Mary's Junior College, being of sound minds and beautiful bodies, tearful of leaving, have come to the realization that St. Mary's is losing its foremost leaders and most outstanding girls. In all fairness to the school we think it only right to bequeath the following articles, knowing full well that St. Mary's could not possibly function without them.

ARTICLE I.

To Dr. Stone we leave our undying gratitude plus a million dollar check for internal improvements around the school.

To Miss Richardson we leave our love for her interest in each and every one of us plus a used coffee urn from the Toddle House.

To Miss Jones we leave our thanks and admiration for her guidence through the year plus a lantern to guide her on her nightly rambles.

To the Facutly and Staff we leave our appreciation for their futile efforts to see us through St. Mary's plus an air-conditioned, sound proof recreation room, fully equipped with children's games.

And to St. Mary's we leave our love for "she has cared for her daughters full well" and in addition we leave to her an electronic escalator system.

ARTICLE II.

And we, the crew:

I, Jessie Allen, leave my unusual ability to keep order and my day by day calendars of all important events to Louise Landauer who can certainly use them.

I, Nancy Atkinson, leave my All Bran to anyone who desperately needs it.

I, Mary Bahnsen, leave without signing out.

I, Mary Bailey, leave my hard earned achievements in modern dance to Eleanor Bullock.

I, Boo Baker, leave still hoping my check will come tomorrow.

I, Carol Barber, leave my renown name in the sports world to Lettie Estridge.

I, Joan Barber, leave still sweating exams.

I, Sara Barber, leave an ink stain on the wall.

I, Marie Barnes, leave my meek and seldom heard voice to Liza Southhall.

I, Sally Barnes, leave to light the world!

I, Jane Bellamy, leave without a care.

I, Elizabeth Blake, leave my smooth walk to Georgia Fuller.

I, Jane Brady, leave my wifey disposition and looks to Nellie Holmes Ballou, with best wishes.

I, Betty Bundy, leave my collection of twice-told tales to Miss Jones for use in American Literature next year.

I, Annie Gray Calhoun, leave my correspondent course with Dorothy Dix to Mary Jane Pemberton.

I, Honey Vann, leave my outstanding basketball ability to Priscilla Brown.

I, Virginia Vann, leave the bright lights on the campus at night to go to a darker atmosphere.

I, Betty Van Wagenen, leave my quick reasoning power to Beverly DuBose.

I, Marion Verner, leave to marry Elvis the Pelvis.

I, Becky Walters, leave still ringing the bell for assembly to come to order.

I, Pat Watson, leave my bun to Kit McLeod.

I, Jenny Whitehurst, leave my unique ability to write D.P.'s in one night and turn in other papers three weeks late to Emmie Davis.

I, Peggy Withers, leave 3rd East to come down to earth.

I, Lucy Lynn Wooten, leave to sleep after talking all night with Dot Johnson and Babs Mace.

I, Cynthia Young, leave all the books properly arranged in the chapel.

I, Jean Young, leave to marry a man whose name starts with A 'cause I'm tired of always being the last one on the list.

We the testators of this literary and historical masterpiece, Betty Covington and Ann Tayloe, leave because we are too cute and smart to stick around.

Class History

"We'll Have These Moments to Remember"

"Jane, isn't it funny how songs bring back memories?"

"It sure is Jessie, for instance, Time on My Hands. That is one thing we didn't have the first week of school our Freshman year."

"We sure didn't. The first day we arrived we were kept so busy meeting all the new people and becoming acquainted with our roommates. The Old Girl-New Girl Parties are always helpful in that respect—and fun too!"

"Don't forget those aptitude tests we worked on all that first week, Jane. That was a real brainwashing."

"Wish You Were Here—If Caesar had been present for our assembly program that year, it would really have been authentic."

"Yes, We Have No Bananas."

"Who needed bananas when we sold hot dogs every Tuesday and Thursday nights our first year as the class project."

"Yes, and rain or shine we delivered coffee and doughnuts every Saturday morning our Sophomore year."

"The Breeze and I—We were really having battles with breeze when Hurricane Hazel visited in October, 1955."

"Unforgettable—One unforgettable night was when Jessie Allen, Sara Barber, Caroline Cobb, and Dickie Robinson were tapped into the Beacon."

"Dim, Dim the Lights—If only our counselors had hummed that before they came into our rooms after curfew, many of us would have been spared quite a few campus slips."

"If I Had Three Wishes—Jessie, what would you want if you had three wishes?"

"I believe I would wish we could live some of our good times over. First there would be the Thanksgiving and Christmas banquets. Will you ever forget those delicious turkey dinners?"

"I'd like to relive the night before Christmas vacation of our Sophomore year when we had the party in Millie Fary's room. Everybody had to pay a fee to come—an article of clothing to give to the underprivileged children for Christmas. Everyone had to entertain too. I know Miss Richardson and I would love to see Celeste Fountain Hodges' Country Hick Act again."

"Let's leave the beatings the Seniors gave us on the way to breakfast and also all that terrible Blue Waltz perfume out of that wish!"

"We can't forget our Freshmen-Sophomore Dance that first year."

"The gym looked so pretty decorated as the Temple of the Gods."

"Til I See You Again—Not as a Stranger—both of those remind me of the spring of our Freshman year. Til I See You Again was echoed through the campus. We came back the next year Not as Strangers, but anxious to see our old friends and hear all about their summer experiences. It was wonderful to see the old girls that year, and there were new faces in our class too—Helen London, Judy Keller, Betty Covington, Sybil Mathis, Jenny Whitehurst, Billie Edmondson, Nancy Sullivan, Millie Fary, Dickie Robinsion, Sallie Rembert, and Ginny McPherson."

"The Longest Walk in the World—That's from our beds to the breakfast table."

"Remember how we got up early enough to primp the first week of school our Freshman year. What a mad rush it was the other years to get to breakfast by 7:30 after getting up at 7:29."

"Please, Mr. Sun."

"Many times Sara Barber was heard chanting this song on the sun porch."

"The Continental Touch."

"Oh yes, Jessie, Millie Fary gave our class that continental touch from the Philippines."

"Slipping and Sliding—It was a free for all when the Sigma-Mu Athletic Clubs chose teams. We were slopping and sliding all over the floor after half of us had been thrown in the swimming pool."

"Write Me a Letter—That has been the cry around the mailboxes ever since we arrived."

"Walking in Style—Oh, Jane, will you ever forget our fashion show when we showed all the different styles up to the Nineteenth Century?"

"April in Paris—We created our own April in Paris in the gym for our annual dance."

"I'm Confessing."

"That's Hall Council, Sister!"

"Sh-h-h Boom—That sound echoed down the halls every Tuesday afternoon when we had chemistry lab. But Dr. Brown never lost his patience with us."

"He was our class advisor for two years. I don't see how we could have done without his help."

"Wanted—That was the old cry on Sunday mornings in hopes that a maid would hear, as we gave our rooms their weekly cleaning."

"The Sand and the Sea—That song will always remind me of those fabulous week ends at Wrightsville, Myrtle, Morehead, Pauley's or Nag's Head."

"A Pretty Girl Is Like a Melody—Our class was well represented in the May Court our Sophomore year by Dickie Robinson. May Day was fun for all of us, especially for those in the dances."

"Bewitched, Bothered, and Bewildered."

"I know what you're thinking of. How mixed up we were around our exam times. It's Three O'Clock in the Morning goes along with that. We could have sung that as we were cramming for exams—in closets of course."

"Graduation Time—Well, Jessie, even though graduation time is a happy time, it was sad to think of our friends who were leaving for other colleges. The college girls here did have one advantage over us high school graduates. They could find out the secret to Mr. and Mrs. Hughes' games."

"For All We Know We May Never Meet Again—That was so true, but we have had such wonderful memories of our two years of high school life."

"Getting To Know You—This was what all of us were doing that first week of our Junior year. Since a majority of us were new girls, we all were pretty busy."

"What It Was Was Football—Carolina vs. State that is what caused an awfully lot of confusion for all the Big and Little Sisters that first Saturday. By the way, did anybody ever see Doris Price's date?"

"No, and she didn't ever see him either. It really was a mess!"

"For They Are Jolly Good Fellows—And all our class officers were too. Cobbie was the Prez, with Sallie Rembert, Helen London, and Becky Walters as her helpers."

"There'll Be Some Changes Made—Cried the unification committee. This one group of girls promoted school spirit and a closer understanding between the Juniors."

"Some of the girls on third Smedes exclaimed Let's Do It and began to decorate the hall and front porch with bathroom tissue. It seemed like a good idea at the time, but every Saturday night for a few weeks after you could hear them wail Full Moon and Empty Arms!"

"Baby, It's Cold Outside. Wasn't it freezing that night of the Christmas parade out on Hillsboro? I understand the dining room had a few empty seats available that night."

"You Set My Heart on Fire—Except it wasn't anybody's heart, but West Rock that almost burned down. Scotland Yard's detectives, under the supervision of Captain Callahan could never find out the source of the smoke. Maybe it was sparks flying from one of Mary Hannah Finch's or Ease Pennington's hot phone calls."

"You'd Be So Nice to Come Home To—Is for our Mamas and Papas! Christmas vacation came and we heard by way of a News Flash that Coy was at it again. The parties in Goldsboro and Charlotte had people Dancing on the Ceiling."

"Blue Monday—was the January second we came back to begin the month of study before exams. Around this time we all wished it was June in January."

"Sullivan and McPherson, our own Sleepy Time Gals, lived up to their titles on Sunday mornings only."

"February Brings the Rain—and Raleigh boasted weeks of consecutive rainy days."

"You can boast more days than that without Rainey times, can't you Jessie?"

"Another thing February brought was the Circle walking. They tapped Cobbie."

"Stairway to the Stars—Led to third Smedes. Dr. Smedes kept typing those papers and Miss Davis blamed it on the girls in the four girl room."

"Fools Rush In—Into the dining room expecting food and receiving only spare ribs and canned brown meat, or was it gray?"

"I Could Write a Book—But instead we, as Juniors, sweated through those D.P.'s, Damn Papers, that is."

"Spring Is Here—and brings our vacation and the Circle again. Dickie and Annie Gray could say I'll Remember April at the Azalea Festival. Ethyl alcohol kept right many old SMS machines running."

"I Get a Kick Out of You—Birch and Pat, who we missed our Senior year, and Jenny exchanged many kicks in their water fights."

"Lovely To Look At—Were our girls in the May Court—Dickie and Midge Bowen, Helen London and Jenny Whitehurst were so graceful dancing in their pale, flowing gowns."

"With exams going on and that useless week end in June, all of us were singing Those St. Mary's Blues."

"June third did finally come and all of us headed in our own favorite directions, singing Give Me the Wide Open Spaces and Happy Days Are Here Again. I guess one reason we weren't too sad was that September would unite the class again."

"Here I Go Again—Is the proper way to begin our Senior Year. For some of us, we were going again for the fourth year."

"Miss Jones reminded all the counselors, who came five days early, that they had to all Walk the Chalk Line! She said I'm Walking Behind You and I've Got My Eyes On You!"

"Miss Hornback greeted us on the week ends with Hello Young Lovers. I'll Be Around—may well be our theme song. We have been well represented on week ends at U.N.C., State, Duke, Georgia, and West Point. Didn't Mary Hill Moffitt complete her one hundred fiftieth short to Carolina?"

"With a beautiful, new dorm like Penick the Seniors sang Heaven, I'm In Heaven! Mrs. Taut was so friendly and generous to all of us. We were so glad she joined us. All of the Belles of St. Mary's got Fever—and sang solos to the Asiatic flu shot needles—I've Got You Under My Skin."

"Choir practice brought strains of Smoke Gets in Your Eyes!—All mingled in with Mr. Broughton's favorite tunes. I understand you could hardly borrow a hat because so many Seniors sent their hats home since they were in the choir!"

"Becky Walters, as assembly chairman, saw to it that we went Around the World in Eighty Assemblies!"

"Did anyone notice a flying female performing Black Magic on Halloween Night? Betty Van Wagenen's roommate was missing, and the broom was gone from the hall closet!" Sally was at it again.

"Seven of our Seniors just ain't sharp enuff! These girls got in the Circle before Christmas."

"Baby, If I'm the Bottom, You're the TOP—And the TOPS made our Christmas party really TOP-NOTCH!"

"Dr. Guerry supplied the bells and dancing for the Bible class, Jingle Belles. He has boosted our morale many times."

"Bell Bottom Blues—As usual the St. Mary's girls hit the bottom during January."

"Anything Goes—and believe me everything that wasn't censored went into our Senior Follies in February."

"They Can't Take That Away From Me—Cried Helen London the night the censor got her."

"All the girls were singing We've Got Rhythm the week before our performance."

"We believe the Seniors proved with their Follies that There's No Business Like Show Business.

"Remember—The lovely snowfall that came the Saturday of Winter Germans. Nothing has ever been so romantic.

"I'm Gonna Sit Right Down and Write Myself a Letter—Well, that would be the only way some of us would ever get any mail."

"When March came, bringing Spring Vacation and beach weather, everybody had spring fever and it was Sleepy Time Down South. All of us had drowsy heads in classes."

"Again we flocked to Wrightsville Beach and the Azalea Festival."

"It Was Just One of Those Things—That Carolina had its Spring Vacation when we had to stay here at school. There were many unhappy girls over the fact that we remained here for Easter. Nevertheless it was a very inspiring service as we all will agree."

"It must be true that Love Is a Many Splendored Thing 'cause so very many girls received pins from various fraternities."

"Beauty as well as Love is a many splendored thing. Just look at our May Court, headed by Jane Bellamy, the Queen."

"With a Little Bit of Luck—and a lot of studying we passed our exams and were ready to graduate."

"Tomorrow we go to the Chapel for the Baccalaureate sermon and Monday all of us will be alumnae."

"These have been such wonderful years. Both of us want to say to all of you—Thanks for the Memories."

One to grow on . . .

Good health is our business. We take a deep personal pride in watching the growth and development of youngsters raised on Pine State's good, health-giving milk and dairy foods. We feel great satisfaction in the knowledge that we contribute to the growth of the community as we do to the growth of its citizens.
We're proud of the fact that we're growing, too . . . that more and more families are asking for Pine State's pure, delicious milk, ice cream and other fine dairy foods.
